Price Family
Published by Wm Price
Cleveland, O., 1917

Family originated in Wales as far back as 230 A.D. In 1538 the name was RHYS, having been changed since. Henry VII knighted John Price; henceforth the first born always called John. In 1785 to 1792 John Price the eldest son and heir came to New York. His brother Daniel Price had preceded him and was already in New York. John Price served in the British Army.

He came to Prince Edward County in the wake of the Loyalists and in 1795 married Esther Lyons, a Quakeress, daughter of Lawrence Lyons and one of four children, the others being Thomas Timothy Lyons and Mary. Susannah Lyons, mother of Esther married Francis Van de Bogart of Napavine after the death of Lawrence Lyons.
